Britain's Prime Minister Theresa May leaves 10 Downing Street, London, Britain May 13, 2017. REUTERS/Toby Melville The EU holds a summit this month to choose a new president, and European Commission President Jean-Claude Juncker, who wants to remain as commission president after the French election in May, would like to give his successor a head start in negotiations for June's Brexit talks. His proposal was rejected by Downing Street, which said no one would arrive on time. "We've asked the EU to consider a postponement," a government source said. "The plan is for a set of informal talks at the end of the month to lay the ground for negotiations in June. It looks unlikely that there will be a formal negotiating team." A second source said May also raised the issue of migration with Juncker. The day after the results of last week's referendum showing the "remain" campaign won narrowly, there were fears in Britain that talks could break down due to an alliance of left-wing parties determined to prevent a vote to leave the bloc. 15 A bit of a different spin on the RPG world but very enjoyable. The battle system is pretty varied, offering you new possibilities in every fight. The game seems like a classic story but with a little bit of a twist. The graphics are nice, the battle system is unique. Overall, a pretty enjoyable title 5/5 Deer Kingdom 5/5 A high fantasy style RPG with a clever blend of fantasy and mysticism 5/5 Glad not to have read the game description before I bought it 5/5 A game that is different from anything else out there. But if you can get over your scepticism, the game has a lot to offer. ELDEN RING game: 25 It's a great game, and I really enjoy playing it. I have no doubts that this is a game that will be appealing to those in the fantasy RPG world. However, I would imagine that most people would be able to get by with doing just one playthrough. I would recommend buying a copy of this game; it's well worth it. 5/5 I should be careful to not comment too often on this game as it makes me feel bad - I've bought it twice already just because I enjoyed my first play-through so much. I should also probably shut up about it, but this game is awesome! First of all, there's a bunch of different types of food that you can eat for buffs: special food for attack, defense and so on. It's very convenient because it makes the game feel like food you eat when you want to get strong. Secondly, there's tons of very cool items to spend your points on. I like to spend points on arrows, bolts, and such so they don't go down, but I've also managed to get some pretty cool items that I was happy to spend my points on - I'm thinking of getting a really long knife to use in combat, but it costs a lot. There's also a map you can see on the bottom right corner of the screen that you can move around and find certain points on. I really like this system, as it adds a bit of a challenge to the game, as well as allowing you to travel quite bff6bb2d33
