You are browsing the web at your work or home PC and click on a link that makes you want to view a web page on your mobile phone. There may be an additional step that makes your browser download a mobile application so that the page you want to view can be viewed on your mobile phone. Once downloaded, the mobile application will launch and be able to connect to and browse the web the same way as you are browsing it on your PC. 5ec8ef588b
